Year 6 residential.

Children in Year 6 are currently in Shropshire enjoying their three day, two night residential visit. They have been enjoying the various activities of tunnel trail, raft building, high ropes, challenge course and a camp fire on Wednesday evening.

Parent Pay

We will soon be setting up our online payment system for the collection of monies for school lunches.

Further information will follow shortly on how to register yourself to pay for online payments as well as being able to pay for school lunches etc where ever you see the pay point sign.

Christmas Shoe box appeal.

Please remember that the boxes will be collected on 13th November. Any last minute items need to be in school at 9am this Monday.

If you are able to send in one item with your child it would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you so much for your support of this worthy cause.

Thank you on behalf of the Royal British Legion for all your generous donations for the poppy appeal.

Photographs

We do hope you are pleased with your photo order. Please remember if you have any queries, contact Tempest direct on 01736 751555
