

On Thursday 7th March, we will be inviting the children to dress up as their favourite book character and bring in the book to share.

Remember, you do not need to buy the costume - you can be creative! For example, you could decorate a plain t-shirt or use face paint to transform your child!

There will be prizes for the most creative costumes.

Leading up to World Book Day, we will be running a 'Share a Story' challenge. We would like you to take a photograph of your child or children sharing a story. They could share a story with family, pets, friends or even their teddies! They can share their story wherever they like - cosy in their bed, in the park or at the museum. We look forward to seeing the interesting places that stories are being shared.

Photographs need to be in school by Monday 4th March and there will be a display of all of the entries in school. By sending the photograph in, you are giving permission for it to be displayed.

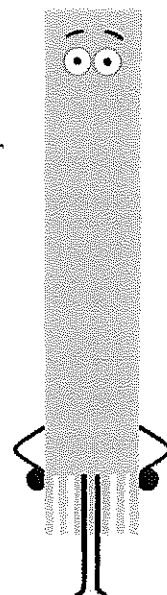

SPONSORED BY

NATIONAL BOOK
tokens

illustrated by Rob Biddulph

SHARE A STORY

Dear Parent/Guardian

We're writing to you about our exciting and important SHARE A STORY FOR 10 MINUTES TODAY campaign to get everyone sharing stories from breakfast to bedtime on World Book Day, 7 March and beyond. Reading with your child now can have long-lasting benefits for their future and, because we know how busy you are, the great news is that reading together for JUST 10 MINUTES a day can make all the difference. Here are some fun and easy ways to join in:

- Find 10 minutes on World Book Day and every day to read with your child. It doesn't just have to happen at bedtime – reading and sharing stories can happen anywhere at any time.
- Visit your local bookshop & help your child choose their FREE World Book Day book with their £1 book token.
- Why not play our fun Are You A Share A Story Reading Star? game with your child? Play online or download a copy of the game at worldbookday.com/reading-stars and have fun collecting your stars and discovering all the exciting ways you can share stories together.
- Choose a book at your local library to read together – join the library and start a new habit of visiting the library on a regular basis.

The more you enjoy reading a book, the more the child you're sharing it with will too. My biggest tip is to cosy-in for the moment and go at the pace of the child... stories, like life, are more fun when you slow down and savour the journey."

RACHEL BRIGHT, AUTHOR OF THE SQUIRRELS WHO SQUABBLED

For lots of ideas on how you can make story time fun as well as advice on sharing stories with your little ones and encouraging a lifelong love of reading, visit www.worldbookday.com. PLUS, our list of the top 100 stories to share is there to help you to discover new books and stories that you'll love sharing together.

We'd love to see what you're reading and your favourite stories, so please share them on Instagram, Facebook and Twitter using #ShareAStory.

A love of reading is one of life's greatest gifts so happy reading together and happy World Book Day!

The World Book Day Team

worldbookday.com

Celebrate stories. Love reading.

#WorldBookDay

World Book Day is a registered charity.